Helplessness stems from the ignorance of errors, but consciousness attracts the power of the Law, say the knowledge-holders.

Obedience itself is bowing, say the knowledge-holders. It is the humbling of the heart.

Because the human being is spirit, the human being may communicate with spirit, say the knowledge-holders.

Because spirit is imperishable, the human being is imperishable, say the knowledge-holders. Time stamps the spirit's qualities.

Discipline is the conservation of the gifts of the First Source, say the knowledge-holders.

Sin is really limitation, say the knowledge-holders. It is unwholeness, separation from the First Source which is full presence of knowledge, power, place and time, say the knowledge holders.

Say the knowledge-holders, evil is a force fearing conversion.

Initiation teaches perpetual initiation, say the knowledge-holders.